

Tuning Up 2012 July 16th-18th

Tuning Up! is a week long camp held in July. During this week students come for 1 1/2 to 2 hours a day where we spend time developing musicality, the ear, and note-reading while having a lot of fun.

Growing up I used to attend Institute every summer and I loved it. As I research those opportunities for my own students, while they are very valuable and inspiring, they can also be expensive. Tuning Up! is a way I can provide my students with the experience of going to camp without any additional cost to them. This is the 11th time I have held Tuning Up! for my students and I am so excited!
